

The poster has a blue background with white sunburst rays emanating from behind a black silhouette of a city skyline at the bottom. Three comic book style speech bubbles and a starburst are arranged in the upper half. The top speech bubble is white with a black border and contains text in black and red. The middle speech bubble is white with a black border and contains the date in large black letters. The right speech bubble is red with a black border and contains the event name in white letters. Below it is a yellow starburst with a black border containing the time in black letters.
